

CLASS OF 2030

COMMITMENT TO CARE Ceremony

College of Pharmacy and Nutrition

Sunday, September 27, 2026

1:00 pm, 1150, E-Wing
Health Sciences Building

Land Acknowledgment

We pay our respect to the First Nations and Métis ancestors of this place and reaffirm our relationship with one another. We work to better understand the ongoing impacts of colonization on the land and to all of the Indigenous people who call kisiskâciwan home. We strive to listen and learn our responsibility to mending these relationships. We are committed to the truth and work towards mending these colonized lands.

Acknowledgments

The College of Pharmacy and Nutrition would like to extend sincere thanks to our sponsor for their generous financial contributions towards this ceremony.

Oath of a Pharmacist

I promise to devote myself to a lifetime of service to others through the profession of pharmacy. In fulfilling this vow:

I will consider the welfare of humanity and relief of suffering my primary concerns.

I will promote inclusion, embrace diversity, and advocate for justice to advance health equity.

I will apply my knowledge, experience, and skills to the best of my ability to assure optimal outcomes for all patients.

I will respect and protect all personal and health information entrusted to me.

I will accept the responsibility to improve my professional knowledge, expertise, and self-awareness.

I will hold myself and my colleagues to the highest principles of our profession's moral, ethical and legal conduct.

I will embrace and advocate changes that improve patient care.

I will utilize my knowledge, skills, experiences, and values to prepare the next generation of pharmacists.

I take these vows voluntarily with the full realization of the responsibility with which I am entrusted by the public.

Adapted from the American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy, Oath of a Pharmacist, 2021

PHARMACY IS A PROFESSION DEDICATED TO THE SERVICE OF PUBLIC HEALTH

Code of Ethics

- A member shall hold the health and safety of the public to be of first consideration in the practice of their profession, rendering to each patient the full measure of their ability as an essential health care practitioner.
- A member shall maintain a high standard of professional competence throughout their practice, through continuation of their education and professional experience.
- A member shall observe the law, particularly those affecting the practice of pharmacy; uphold the dignity of the profession; strive for its betterment; maintain a high standard of ethics; and report to the proper authority, without fear or favour, any unethical or illegal conduct which may be encountered within the profession.
- A member shall not engage in any practice, the conditions of which might cause them to compromise acceptable standards of the profession.
- A member shall protect the patient's right of confidentiality.
- A member shall co-operate with other health care practitioners to ensure delivery of the highest level of pharmaceutical services to the public.
- A member shall be responsible in setting a value on services rendered.
- A member shall be governed in advertising practices by the highest level of professional integrity.
- A member shall associate with, participate in, and financially support organizations for the betterment of the profession of pharmacy.
- A member shall be a willing, sincere, and diligent preceptor in the training and education of future pharmacists, pharmacy technicians, and others.
